IMPORTANT INFORMATION – please review

- Your feedback is important in reporting to our stakeholders. A survey is included in the folder provided as well as available electronically using the QR code on the agenda. Please evaluate each part of the day as it finishes and return/submit before you leave.
- Please silence your cell phones during opening remarks, the keynote lecture, workshops, and career panel.
- Just a reminder as per the media release form you submitted, it is your responsibility to avoid cameras if you do not wish to have your picture taken or used in any promotional material.
- Washrooms are by the registration area. A water bottle refill station is down the hall.
- Workshop dispersal will begin promptly at the times indicated on your agenda. Please be sure you are in the auditorium at these times, so you do not miss the call for your workshop. Presenters will be meeting us here to collect their groups. Workshops will be called out by their code as presenters arrive.
- For safety reasons, please follow the instructions of presenters and volunteers carefully. Ask questions. Have an open mind. Discovering what you don't like is just as important as discovering what you do like.
- Keep your belongings with you at all times. There are no secure storage areas.
- Teachers are asked to please observe workshops only, unless otherwise invited by the presenters.
- Lunch will be available in 1M102. Please take only one of each food item until we ensure that all participants have returned from the morning workshops, after which seconds will be available.
- Let's get social! If possible, we encourage you to post on TWITTER or INSTAGRAM about the event at appropriate times using handles noted below. Be sure to include @CdnMedHallFame!
- Our "Health Pros Tell All" panel discussion concludes our day. Panellists will share stories of their academic and professional careers, after which the moderator will invite you to ask questions. A list of the panel members will be posted on the door beforehand.

Thank you for joining us today!
