PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

POSITION YOUR BRAND ALONGSIDE CANADA'S MOST INFLUENTIAL HEALTH LEADERS

When you partner with the Canadian Medical Hall of Fame (CMHF), your organization stands in front of an audience you can't reach anywhere else: 500+ decision-makers and influencers from research, clinical care, academia, government, and business, the people shaping the future of health in Canada.

Your evening starts with a reception and dinner built for relationship-building, followed by an awards presentation and tribute storytelling that puts your brand at the center of a moment people remember. You're not sponsoring a gala, you're aligning your name with excellence, innovation, and the stories of six new Laureates whose work is changing health outcomes nationally and around the world.

This is also your entry point into Montreal's health sciences community specifically: a room full of the researchers, clinicians, and institutional leaders driving that ecosystem forward. Sponsorship here means visibility with the audience that matters most to your business, and a partnership that reflects your organization's genuine investment in Canada's health future.

It was an unforgettable evening filled with inspiration, connection, and a deep sense of community. The room was filled with physician leaders who lead in so many different ways and across diverse fields — a powerful reminder that leadership is not one-size-fits-all, and every journey is truly unique... This event filled my cup. It reminded me that medicine is not just about science — it's about people, progress, and purpose. Congratulations to all the Inductees!
